Project Engineer/ Estimator – Earthwork/ Roadwork/ Underground Utilities

Job Summary

Vernon Nagel Inc. has a job opening for a Project Engineer/ Estimator working in Northwest Ohio on both public and private projects in the mass earthwork, roadwork environment. This position requires competent experience

Responsibilities

- Project Engineer – work with field leadership personnel, working in coordination of resources, risk management, scheduling and monitoring subcontract and supplier costs and performance
- Track budget and costs of individual projects
- Assist in the management of construction productivity, means and methods, value engineering initiative
- Maintain good client business relations, attending project meetings and necessary coordination efforts
- Prepare estimates and takeoffs for Mass Excavation in the commercial environment and roadwork for ODOT, Counties and municipalities in a 16 county Northwest Ohio region.
- Maintain and lead quote solicitation with subcontractors and suppliers.
- Work in conjunction with head of estimating and project management to deliver successful projects.

Qualifications

- Applicant should have an associates or bachelor's degree in Civil/ Construction Engineering or Construction Management
- A minimum two years' experience in construction management associated with civil construction
- Experience in field operations management and estimating.
- Communication, self-motivationg, leadership, professionalism and organizational skills.
- AutoCAD Civil 3D, Trimble Business Center or similar takeoff software
- Microsoft Office competent
- HCSS Heavy bid or estimating software competency
- Knowledge of site and/or roadway grading
- Organizational and communication skills
- Work well in a team environment and work with Project Manager and Estimator
- Ability to read and understand construction plans
- Maintain task-oriented and meet project deadlines