

GENERAL CONTRACTORS

O-154 County Road 11C • Napoleon, Ohio 43545

(419) 592-3861 • Fax (419) 592-1537 • Email: nagelinc@nagelinc.com

April 18, 2024

Project Foreman – Underground Utilities/ Roadway

Job Summary

Vernon Nagel Inc. has a job opening for a Project Foreman working in Northwest Ohio on both public and private underground utility, roadway and sitework projects. This position is an important role at Vernon Nagel Inc whereas person will lead a crew daily in it's work platform, working on the project with their crew in conjunction with planning, organizing and providing strong leadership and knowledge of work tasks.

Responsibilities

- Manage daily activities of project in coordinating your crew, material, trucking to assure a safe and productive work site.
- Direct/ Manage means and methods of crew
- Reading, interpreting and comprehending construction drawings
- Complete daily and weekly paperwork associated with production quantities, safety and owner representative necessary paperwork
- Communication and have an active role facilitating planning and methods with fellow leaders and management
- Achieve schedule goals set forth on individual projects
- Work around live utilities

Qualifications

- Five years' experience or proven strong background in underground utilities and civil construction industry.
- Experience in leadership of a construction crew where leadership, communication, organization, production and safety are a focus
- Experience dealing with project inspectors and engineers
- Ability to work with construction plans in reading, interpreting and comprehending drawings
- Current Driver's License

Vernon Nagel Inc. is an equal opportunity employer.

Interested applicants can submit an application and/or resume to MMontgomery@nagelinc.com or contact the office at 419-592-3861.